STAT Dear

I am replying to your letter of 12 July in the absence of the Director relative to your resignation from this Agency.

You may be sure that we always welcome objective criticism, and take any action which may be appropriate in connection with such criticism. You may also be sure that any allegations such as those you have made are properly investigated and acted upon to the extent warranted by circumstances.

Your action in bringing this matter to the attention of the Director's office is appreciated.

Sincerely,
